Mr. Hung Ngan's Self-Introductory Statement

I graduated from the SKH Chan Young Secondary School in 2000 and, just like other graduates, I pursued further study in a local university and started my career afterwards. I always think that the seven years spent in the SKH Chan Young Secondary School had been very rewarding in my life when I met my lifelong friends and built up solid foundation for my work. I am very proud of being an alumnus of the SKH Chan Young Secondary School and felt grateful to the principals and teachers who had sincerely guided and coached me when I was a student.

Therefore I have taken up the office of the Chairman of the Alumni Association of the SKH Chan Young Secondary School since 2010 and have been working diligently to establish a platform to enhance communication between the alumni and the school and that to make, as much as we can do, contribution to the school. With our committees, we have successfully organized a series of events in the past, such as the Alumni Days, various sports events and career talks for the students. I was elected to be the alumni manager in 2016. As an alumni manager, I have actively participated in the meetings and given constructive advice to the IMC.

I wish to be elected to be the alumni manager to represent the alumni in the IMC and, in doing so, I will continue to foster communication between the alumni and the school and bring the alumni's views to the school management with a view to making positive contribution to the development of the SKH Chan Young Secondary School.
